PRESS STATEMENT

INDICATIVE RETAIL FUEL PRICES – JUNE 2025

The Independent Consumer and Competition Commission (“ICCC”) hereby announces the new retail fuel prices for this month, which will take effect on Sunday, 8th of June 2025.

The Indicative Retail Prices (IRPs) this month for diesel and kerosene will decrease while petrol will slightly increase on average throughout PNG. This change is consistent with the movements in the international crude oil prices. The decreases in diesel and kerosene this month have indicated a significant drop in fuel prices for four (4) consecutive months, offering a great relief to the consumers. Though there will be a slight increase in petrol prices, the increase is very minimal (less than a toea) hence will not have much effect/ impact compared to the prices for the last month (May). Generally, there was a decrease in international crude oil prices over the last 12 months.

The significant decrease in average crude oil prices in late April and early May are mainly attributed to reduced oil demand expectations amid the global trade tensions, and increased crude oil production by the Organization of Petroleum Exporting Countries and its allies (OPEC+). Although sentiments have improved after the United States of America reached trade agreements with the United Kingdom and China in May, ongoing trade uncertainty is still expected to adversely affect oil demand exerting a downward pressure on global oil prices¹.

The domestic retail fuel prices (IRPs) for this month are inclusive of the Import Parity Prices (IPPs) or the imported costs for each petroleum product, domestic sea and road freight rates for the second quarter of 2025, the approved annual wholesale and retail margins for 2025 and the Goods and Services Tax (GST), including the applicable excise duties, among other parameters.

PORT MORESBY

As a result of adding all the various cost components mentioned above, the maximum retail price movements for petrol, diesel and kerosene in Port Moresby will change as follows:

Port Moresby Retail Prices (toea per litre, tpl)	Petrol (tpl)	Diesel (tpl)	Kerosene (tpl)
Retail Price as of 8 th June 2025	418.11	385.24	353.83
Retail Price as of 8 th May 2025	417.70	388.79	360.55
Change (+/-) tpl	+0.41	-3.55	-6.72

ALL CENTRES

Retail prices in all other designated centers will change according to their quarterly approved domestic freight rates for the second quarter of 2025, and their respective annual retail margins for this year. For all other centers, the maximum retail prices for each regulated petroleum product will change on average consistent with the changes observed for Port Moresby.

The prices set by the ICCC are the indicative maximum retail prices, for which retailers may choose to sell below the ICCC approved maximum price.

Whilst retailers may choose to set fuel prices on their pumps to one decimal place, the ICCC will continue to set the maximum price to 2 decimal places. No fuel pump operator should charge above the Indicative Retail Price for this month's price regardless of the number of decimal places. This is to ensure compliance with the Prices Regulation Act under which the maximum prices of declared petroleum products are set. Retailers who are displaying prices to 1 decimal place are urged by the ICCC to round the prices down to ensure prices are within the allowable indicative retail prices.

ICCC Inspectors will continue to conduct spot checks on 8th June 2025, to ensure on-going compliance by retail fuel operators.

Consumers are advised to report any instances of overcharging by retailers through the ICCC's Consumer Protection Division on telephone number 312 4600, or by contacting our Regional Offices closest to you on the numbers provided above.
